FINGER LAKES CONCERT BAND PRESENTS HOLIDAY CONCERT

Gregory Kane Directs Music of Elgar, Sullivan, and More at 3 p.m. on December 13

CANANDAIGUA, N.Y.—Now celebrating 95 years of fostering the creative spirit through music and dance, Hochstein is delighted to announce a holiday concert presented by the Finger Lakes Concert Band. Under the direction of Gregory Kane, the Finger Lakes Concert Band brings together instrumentalists from around the Finger Lakes region to perform a wide variety of exciting music. This holiday concert, to be performed at Canandaigua Academy, is open to the public. Tickets will be offered at the door for $5 general admission, with students 18 and under admitted free of charge.

The Finger Lakes Concert Band holiday concert features:

- Selections from the “Enigma Variations” of Edward Elgar, transcribed for concert band;
- The Overture to “Pineapple Poll,” a comic ballet based on music of Arthur Sullivan arranged by Sir Charles Mackerras;
- “Eternal Father Strong to Save,” arranged by Claude T. Smith.

About FLCB: Sponsored by Hochstein School of Music & Dance and comprised of adult instrumentalists and advanced high school students from the Greater Finger Lakes community, the Finger Lakes Concert Band rehearses weekly and gives several concerts per year featuring a wide variety of music ranging from standard wind band literature and orchestral transcriptions to music of the jazz and pop idioms.
