Dear Hochstein Friends and Families,

May is construction season at Hochstein! Along with the Phase 1 of the planned transformation of our former library into a nine-station Computer Lab, came the unanticipated need to replace the entire ceiling in the Recital Hall! We expect to reopen the Hall in just a few weeks, but meanwhile we're enjoying recitals in the Performance Hall, Chapel, and other spaces at Hochstein and Downtown Church. The Computer Lab is slated to open this summer when we will begin to offer exciting opportunities for ear training, composing, arranging, and much more!
