Meet the HYSO Staff

Dr. Pia Liptak, HYSO Strings Coach

Violinist Pia Liptak performs as a soloist and chamber musician in Europe and the United States. She is on the faculty of The Hochstein School and is co-founder and artistic director for Cordancia Chamber Orchestra. Ensemble collaborations have included the Liptak-Beaudette Duo, Legno Duo, and extensive involvement with the new music scene in Rochester. In addition, she serves as the concertmaster for the University of Rochester Symphony Orchestra. Pia has performed and recorded three CDs with Japanese Koto-player Ryuko Mizutani in Duo vio-LINK-oto and a new CD, "Stars.Stories.Song," with contemporary music for voice and ensemble, has been released in October 2014 from Parma Records. Pia holds a DMA from the Eastman School.

Jeremy Stoner, HYSO Brass Coach

Jeremy Stoner joined the faculty of the Hochstein School in September 2007. He teaches tuba, euphonium, trombone, and coaches student brass ensembles. Since 2005, he has also performed with the Plymouth Brass Quintet along with other Hochstein faculty members since 2005. An active freelance musician and teacher in his hometown of Rochester, NY, Jeremy holds a bachelor's degree in Music Performance from Oberlin Conservatory of Music and a master's degree in Music Performance from Northwestern University. In September 2011, he joined the faculty at Nazareth university as Lecturer in Tuba and Euphonium. Along with his teaching duties, Jeremy has also performed tuba concertos with the Symphony Orchestra and the Wind Symphony at Nazareth, is a member of the Penfield Symphony, and also plays bass, tuba, and sings with the band Teagan and the Tweeds.

Diane Smith, HYSO Woodwind Coach

Diane Smith is a member of the flute section of the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra and a founding member of the Antara Winds. She has also performed with Rochester Oratorio Society, Rochester Broadway Theatre League, Mercury Opera, Lyric Opera, Skaneateles Festival, the Syracuse Symphony, and the Erie Philharmonic. Ms. Smith teaches flute and chamber music at The Hochstein School and Roberts Wesleyan University. At Hochstein, she also serves as Coordinator of Ensembles and Co-Chairperson of the Woodwind, Brass, and Percussion Department.

John Rolland, HYSO Percussion Coach

John Rolland holds a bachelor's degree in music education and a master's degree in wind conducting from SUNY Fredonia. As a percussionist, Rolland has performed with the Atlantic Wind Symphony and Western New York Chamber Orchestra and remains active as a rock, jazz, and pit orchestra drummer. He directs the Penfield High School Wind Ensemble and serves as chair of the Penfield music department. Rolland is director of the Junior Wind Symphony and Youth Wind Symphony at The Hochstein School and is a frequent guest conductor of junior and senior high honor bands throughout New York State.

Ruth Gates, HYSO Manager

Ruth became orchestra manager during the 2012-2013 season. In addition Gates is a Front Office Assistant at The Hochstein School.

Congratulations!

Chamber Music and Instrument Ensembles

The Chamber Music Connection (CMC) program offers fun and challenging opportunities to learn the art of ensemble playing and connect with other musicians in a small group setting. Ensembles are formed throughout the year for players of compatible ages and abilities, as permitted from the pool of applicants.

The program features weekly coachings with a faculty member and an extensive schedule of opportunities to participate in workshops, masterclasses, and performances at Hochstein and at numerous community venues.

If you have questions about Hochstein's Chamber Music Connection program, please contact us at chamber@hochstein.org or by calling 585.454.4596.

Hochstein Philharmonia Orchestra Directors

John Fetter - Director,

Hochstein Philharmonia Orchestra

John Fetter is Music Director of the Hochstein Philharmonia Orchestra and the Hochstein Sinfonia Strings, and Director of the Hochstein summer camp String Jam: Alternative Styles for Strings. In addition to his work at Hochstein, he is a music teacher at Pinnacle School No. 35 in the Rochester City School District and an Instructor of Violin for the Eastman Community Music School. While teaching at the Eastman School of Music for more than a decade, Dr. Fetter was actively engaged with music teaching in the urban community. He coordinated the Urban Strings partnership between Eastman and the Rochester City School District, work for which he received the University of Rochester's Presidential Diversity Award and the Rochester Education Foundation's Making a Difference Award. Fetter earned his Doctor of Philosophy and Master of Music degrees in music education from the Eastman School of Music and his Bachelor of Music from the University of Northern Iowa. Beginning his education career as a Suzuki violin teacher, he was a faculty member of the University of Northern Iowa Suzuki School. He then was public school orchestra director in Greeley, Colorado, and performed in orchestras in Colorado and Wyoming. As a conductor, Fetter has worked with the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, Richmond Symphony Orchestra, and New Hampshire Music Festival Orchestra. He also has appeared with the latter as a violinist, and coordinates the festival's Words on Music series. While occasionally found sitting in with blues and folk musicians, he also enjoys performing in chamber music settings and has performed on the Hochstein Faculty Artist Series, "Spotlight on Faculty."

Matt Osika - Assistant Director,

Hochstein Philharmonia Orchestra

Matt Osika serves as the Assistant Director of the Hochstein Philharmonia Orchestra and an Instructor of the Hochstein Elementary Wind Band Camp. Currently teaching instrumental music at Thomas High School and Willink Middle School in Webster, NY, Osika performs regularly as principal trumpet with the Penfield Symphony and Cordancia Chamber Orchestras. He has conducted the Cordancia Chamber Orchestra, Ad Hoc Chamber Ensemble, The ECMS Music Educators' Wind Ensemble, and various honor groups throughout New York State. Osika's compositions and arrangements are in high demand and are performed regularly by local ensembles. In the Spring of 2014, Osika founded the Young Composers Collaboration Project with the Hochstein Youth Orchestra Program, where students create, refine, and premiere large orchestral works. Osika attended the Eastman School of Music as a recipient of the prestigious Lois S. Rogers scholarship where he received the Bachelor Degree in Applied Music/Music Education (2008) and the Master Degree in Music Education (2010). During that time, he performed alongside the Canadian Brass, served as tour manager for the Eastman Wind Ensemble, and as Assistant Conductor of the Eastman Wind Orchestra. Trumpet instructors include James Thompson and Douglas Prosser; Conducting instructors include Mark Davis Scatterday and Brad Lubman.

Casey Springstead, Director earned two degrees from the Eastman School of Music and he is a music educator with the West Irondequoit Schools since 1999. As a guest conductor, he has worked with area ensembles including Cordancia, the Nazareth College Concert Band, Irondequoit Concert Band, Brighton Symphony Orchestra, Rochester's New Horizons Band, and junior high and senior high All-County bands in Western New York.

A faculty member at The Hochstein School since 2003 and the 2017 recipient of the Faculty Service Award, Mr. Springstead is the Director of the Hochstein Youth Symphony Orchestra. He has led the HYSO on tours of France, Austria, Spain, and Portugal, and in 2014, the orchestra participated in a live-via-satellite exchange concert with a youth orchestra from one of Rochester's sister cities in Lithuania. Previous appointments at Hochstein include Director of the Youth Wind Symphony and Junior Wind Symphony, and Assistant Director of Philharmonia. For several years, he also conducted ensemble.twenty.21, a contemporary music ensemble comprised of faculty from Hochstein, Nazareth College, and Roberts Wesleyan College as well as musicians from the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra. Performances included a live broadcast on WXXI-FM's Live from Hochstein series.

Mr. Springstead is a hornist with the Penfield Symphony Orchestra since 1999 and has performed with several area ensembles, including Mercury Opera, the Gregory Kunde Chorale, Ad Hoc, Cordancia, and as a member of many pit orchestras and ceremonial brass quintets. He is also active as a collaborative pianist, accompanying Rochester-area high school and college musicians for recitals and auditions. Originally from Hammondsport, NY, he lives in Webster with his wife and fellow musician/educator, Kirsta Rodean, and their two children, Orson and Malin.

HYSO Concerto Competition Winner

Noah Busch, a sophomore at Brighton High School, has been playing violin since the age of three and currently studies with Dr. Pia Liptak at The Hochstein School. He has participated in numerous NYSSMA All-County Orchestras (being named concertmaster twice) and Area All-State Orchestras. He has competed in the Chicago International Violin Competition and in 2021 won second place in the Manolov International Violin and Piano Competition in New York City, as well as earning the prize for best rendition of a modern piece. A member of HYSO since seventh grade, Noah has played in every Hochstein youth orchestral ensemble and has played in Hochstein chamber ensembles since the age of nine. He is currently in a Hochstein scholarship quartet that has been together since 2022. He has participated in masterclasses with RPO concertmaster Juliana Athayde and with Rachel Barton-Pine. Noah has been a merit scholar at the Hochstein School on numerous occasions and is on track to complete its Honors Certificate Program. He was honored to perform at the reopening of the Hochstein Performance Hall in 2022. Outside of music, Noah looks forward to playing soccer for his high school's varsity team in 2024 and plans to pursue collegiate study in pre-law and violin performance.

Noah is grateful for being able to play on a Franz Kinberg violin, an instrument generously loaned to him for the concert by Payton Violins.

PAYTON  VIOLINS

Bios

Dai Wei is a composer and vocalist whose musical journey navigates in the spaces between east and west, classical and pop, electronic and acoustic, innovation and tradition. She often draws from eastern philosophy and aesthetics to create works with contemporary resonance, and reflect an introspection on how these multidimensional conflict and tension can create and inhabit worlds of their own. Being an experimental vocalist, she performs herself as a Khoomei throat singer in her recent compositions, through which are filtered by different experiences and backgrounds as a calling that transcends genres, races, and labels. She was recently featured in The Washington Post's "22 for 22": Composers and Performers to Watch this year."

Described as "impassioned" by The New York Times and "with a striking humanity" by The Washington Post, her music has received commissions and performances by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Utah Symphony Orchestra, New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra, West Virginia Symphony Orchestra, Reno Philharmonic, American Composers Orchestra, Opéra Orchestre National Montpellier, the Philharmonia Orchestra, Chamber Orchestra of Philadelphia, Bang on a Can, and Aizuri String Quartet. Recent projects include new works for Alarm Will Sound, Curtis Symphony Orchestra 2023 West Coast and Asia Tour, Carnegie Hall Link Up program, West coast premiere with the Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra, and her new album. Wei is a Ph.D candidate in Music Composition at Princeton University

Program Note

THE DANCING MOONLIGHT is largely a piece about my infatuation with a type of traditional dance music that originated from an ethnic group called Yi in Yunnan, China. With the capture and blending of the style and timbre in Jazz and Rock music, I want to express that we are always looking at the same moon regardless of where we are, who we are, and where we come from.

Hochstein Youth Symphony Orchestra Scholarship Support

Through the generous donations of individuals and organizations these scholarships are awarded yearly to HYSO students. Recipients are selected by the conductor along with a committee of Hochstein faculty members.

GRETCHEN SNEDEKER MEMORIAL ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP FOR PRINCIPAL HORN

Gretchen Snedeker, a 24 year-old graduate student at the Eastman School of Music, was tragically killed in a car accident in April, 2008. She was principal horn of the Hochstein Youth Symphony Orchestra from 1998 to 2001, and featured on our first tour to Austria in 2001. She discovered her passion for music during her time with HYSO. It is in the memory of Gretchen's spirit and passion that a full tuition scholarship is awarded annually to the HYSO principal horn. Recipients: Declan Wolf and Ella Belculfine

MORNING MUSICALE SCHOLARSHIP

Morning Musicale was founded in Rochester around 1930. It is an organization of approximately sixty women musicians who meet monthly for chamber music and friendship. The group provides support for the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, the Imogene Barstow Fund at the Eastman School of Music and it is proud to sponsor this full scholarship for a student in HYSO. The Morning Musicale Scholarship is awarded to a returning junior or senior who strives for excellence and exhibits dedication and commitment to the orchestra. Recipient: Isabel Goldstein

GEORGE A. PETTERSEN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

George A. Pettersen served as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy during World War II, successfully ran his own business, and was passionate about many things in life including music. Mr. Pettersen truly appreciated those around him who devoted their lives to their passions, and it is in his memory that Nancy Strelau annually honors a string, wind, or percussion student who emulates her father's commitment and work ethic. Recipient: Noah Busch

DON MESSINA STRING INSTRUMENT ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP

Don Messina studied piano and double bass, which he played in the East High School Orchestra and the Eastman School's Conducting Orchestra in the 1950s. He has been a life-long concert-goer and is currently pursuing conducting opportunities. This scholarship is in memory of Don's immigrant parents, Harry and Louise Messina, who loved music and who sacrificed much to encourage his musical aspirations. The Don Messina String Instrument Scholarship covers the HYSO tuition for one year and is awarded annually to a student currently enrolled in elementary, middle or high school, and plays a stringed instrument. The recipient must display strong potential and outstanding musicianship. Recipient: Joanna Frank

ANNE WILSON YARD MEMORIAL ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP FOR PRINCIPAL OBOE

Anne Wilson Yard, a lifelong supporter of the arts, passed away in July of 2017. Passionate about children being engaged musically at an early age, she was influential in starting a Suzuki Violin program at an independent school in New Jersey where her children were enrolled. She passed on her love of music to her daughters and grandchildren, including three generations of oboe players. Later in life, she and her husband moved to Pittsford, New York to be closer to family. Two of her grandchildren have attended Hochstein for more than a decade and thoroughly enjoyed their time in HYSO. In Anne's memory, her family has endowed the Principal Oboe chair for the Orchestra. Recipient: Claire Houston

FRANK AND MARY LOUISE GEORGE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FOR PRINCIPAL FLUTE

This scholarship was established by flutist and Hochstein faculty member Rita George Simmons to honor the time and dedication her parents, Frank and Mary Louise George, gave in support of her musical achievements. She feels very blessed to have had parents that drove her to lessons, came to all of her concerts, and purchased her instruments, music, and accessories without question or complaint. To keep their memory going and shine a light on what wonderful parents they were, this scholarship is given in support of the HYSO principal flute. Recipient: Elizabeth Runion
