HOCHSTEIN

A Message from Hilary Respass

Dear Hochstein Families and Friends,

Tonight we recognize eighteen of The Hochstein School's most accomplished students – those who have won 2023 Merit Scholarships and those who will complete the Honors Certificate Program this year. We are honored to present these young performers, whose talent, hard work, and achievement very much reflects that of our School's namesake, David Hochstein.

Merit Scholarships were awarded earlier this year in four sets of auditions for music students (for grades 5-6, 7-8, 9-10, and 11-12). Participating students were nominated by their teachers. Each student presented three contrasting works, which were heard by a panel of judges – Hochstein faculty members as well as guests from the professional music community. Each winner has received an award that is applied toward their Hochstein tuition. Congratulations to all the winners!

Merit Scholarships are established with endowed or annual gifts from a number of donors, often as a memorial tribute. We are so grateful for this encouraging, generous support of our students and our program.

Hochstein's Honors Certificate Program is a multi-year, rigorous program involving individual lessons and an advanced level course of study for each discipline, music theory and history courses, annual juries before a faculty committee, and the presentation of a senior recital. Three students are presenting their senior recitals this year, and we anticipate that all will complete the requirements for the Certificate. We deeply appreciate the significant ongoing support for this program from the Donald F. and Maxine B. Davison Foundation, and wish our graduating students all the best as they embark on their next chapters of life and learning.

Each of this year's performers has spent countless hours – and years! – in practice, lessons, classes, and rehearsals, and their work has been supported in myriad ways by parents and other family members, teachers, accompanists – and you, the audience. Thank you for coming together to celebrate their achievements.

With warmest wishes to you, and hearty congratulations to our performers!
