HOCHSTEIN ANNOUNCES LIVE FROM HOCHSTEIN CONCERT & BROADCAST FALL 2015 SERIES

Wednesdays 12:10 p.m. to 12:50 p.m. October 7–December 9, 2015

Now celebrating 95 years of fostering the creative spirit through music and dance, Hochstein is proud to announce the fall Live from Hochstein concert series. Hochstein's commitment to the Rochester community not only encompasses a generous tuition assistance program but also includes free or low-cost concerts throughout the year. Hosted by Classical 91.5's Mona Seghatoleslami, Live from Hochstein is the longest running live broadcast concert series in Western New York. Broadcast live on WXXI Classical 91.5/ 90.3 FM from the Hochstein Performance Hall (50 North Plymouth Ave. in Rochester), the series presents free "brown bag" concerts from 12:10-12:50 p.m., giving downtown business people, teachers, families, students and friends an opportunity to enjoy classical music together during their lunch hour.

Plan your mid-day getaways this fall with these outstanding musicians, including duets, trios, chamber ensembles, and the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra.

Sidney and Barbara Sobel have provided continuous underwriting of the Live from Hochstein Broadcast & Concert Series since 1993. It is also made possible by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature.

The Hochstein School of Music and Dance celebrates 95 years of nurturing the creative spirit by providing excellent music and dance instruction to anyone who is interested—regardless of age, level of skill, background, or ability to pay. In addition, the Hochstein School continues its commitment to the Rochester community by offering a variety of free and low cost concerts and performances in the Hochstein Performance Hall throughout the year. We invite you to gather with us! Play—Sing—Move—Learn! And tap in to your own unique creative spirit!
