MUSICIANS

Gerard Floriano is an accomplished conductor of orchestral, operatic, and choral repertoire. Floriano maintains a busy schedule as artistic director, music director, music educator, and guest conductor, and has led concerts throughout Europe and the United States. He is the visionary force and Artistic Director of Finger Lakes Opera. Now in its tenth season, FLO is the premier summer opera experience for audiences in Western New York and the Finger Lakes region.

This spring Floriano will lead a performance of Haydn's Lord Nelson Mass with the Geneseo Symphony Orchestra and Festival Singers, as well as the world premiere of Jocelyn Hagen's "Say It Out Loud" with the highly acclaimed Geneseo Chamber Singers on Live From Hochstein on WXXI-Classical. The summer of 2022 will see Maestro Floriano leading a series of performances as part of Finger Lakes Opera's summer season, including a star-studded 10th anniversary concert spectacular featuring soprano Elena O'Connor, mezzo-soprano Deborah Nansteel, and baritone Michael Preacely, accompanied by the celebrated Finger Lakes Opera Orchestra. Future engagements include a new production of Aida with Finger Lakes Opera and an extended European concert series.

Floriano is a Distinguished Service Professor at SUNY Geneseo, where he also serves as Chair of the Department of Music and Director of Choral Activities. He is also a recipient of the SUNY Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Scholarship and Creative Activity. Other conducting positions have included fellowships at the Aspen Summer Music Festival and the Oregon Bach Festival, Resident Conductor at the Brevard Music Center and Co-artistic Director of Mercury Opera Rochester. Floriano lives in upstate New York with his wife Joan who is a highly respected performer and master music teacher in voice.

Korean-born musician Dr. E-Na Song is a concert pianist, collaborative pianist, and piano teacher. As a concert pianist, she enjoys communicating with audiences with her passionate playing. Her creative interpretation and thoughtful programs attract audiences of all ages and backgrounds. She has appeared in venues such as Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall, Kodak Hall at Eastman Theatre, Han Gang Grand Hall at Gang Dong Arts Center, and in Europe, including Poland and Spain.

Dr. Song currently teaches at Roberts Community Music School and The Hochstein School as a Piano Instructor and at Roberts Wesleyan College as an Adjunct Professor of Piano. She enjoys her time in Florida every summer, working as the Assistant Director in the Rebecca Penneys Piano Festival. Dr. Song earned her Bachelor Degree from Seoul National University, where she studied with HyungBae Kim. She holds Master and Doctoral degrees from the Eastman School of Music, where she studied with Rebecca Penneys.
