Hochstein Youth Symphony Orchestra Performs Fall Concert

Program includes music by Dukas, Copland, Coleridge-Taylor, and Dvořák

ROCHESTER, N.Y. — The Hochstein Youth Symphony Orchestra (HYSO) – an advanced youth orchestra comprised of grade 7-12 students from all over the Rochester region, directed by Casey Springstead – performs its fall concert on Sunday, November 10, at 2:00 pm in Hochstein Performance Hall. This concert will also be livestreamed on Hochstein’s YouTube channel at <http://www.youtube.com/user/hochsteinschool>.

HYSO’s first concert of the year focuses on musical concepts like ensemble, style, and expression, helping the newest orchestra members learn to play cohesively with returning musicians. Springstead says, “Our primary goal is to create a community of talented young musicians and we work diligently to foster a learning environment that nurtures and encourages students as they develop their musicianship.”

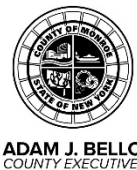

The concert program includes Dukas’ masterwork “The Sorcerer’s Apprentice,” as featured in the Disney animated film Fantasia; Copland’s high-energy “Buckaroo Holiday” from Rodeo, with syncopated rhythms and folk melodies; Coleridge-Taylor’s The Bamboula, inspired by African folk tunes and rhythms; and selections from Dvořák’s Symphony No. 8, which ranges from wistful to raucous. Tickets are $5 at the door.

The 84-member HYSO is a full orchestra for advanced strings, brass, woodwinds, and percussion. This year, there are students from 27 different schools, plus homeschooled students, from around the Rochester area and beyond who come together on Saturday mornings for an accelerated musical experience. The HYSO presents three concerts per year along with periodic international tours. Since 2000, the HYSO has performed in cities in Spain, Portugal, Austria, France, Germany, Czech Republic, Italy, Switzerland, and Ireland.

About Hochstein: The Hochstein School is a vibrant organization in Rochester, NY, offering high-quality instruction in music, dance, and Expressive Arts (music, art, and dance therapy). Established in 1920 to commemorate the artistry, life, and service of David Hochstein – a prodigious violinist who died serving in World War I – the School welcomes students of all ages, abilities, proficiency levels, ethnicities, and socio-economic backgrounds in an inclusive and accessible environment that provides artistic opportunities for all. More than 100 years after its founding, Hochstein annually serves more than 3,500 students from a 12-county region surrounding Rochester. The School is active throughout the community and provides tuition assistance to more than 50% of its students. The acclaimed Hochstein Performance Hall, located within the school’s historic downtown building, hosts concerts and events throughout the year. For more information, visit www.hochstein.org.
