NEWS RELEASE

Hochstein Youth Symphony Orchestra Performs Fall Concert Featuring Music of Liszt, Wagner, Tchaikovsky, and Copland

November 13 concert in Hochstein Performance Hall

ROCHESTER, N.Y.—On Sunday, November 13, at 7:00 pm, the Hochstein Youth Symphony Orchestra (HYSO), directed by Casey Springstead, performs its fall concert. The program includes Liszt's Les Préludes, Wagner's Overture to The Flying Dutchman, Tchaikovsky's Marche Slav, and Copland's Quiet City, which features Hochstein faculty members Matt Osika, trumpet, and Terry Fonda Smith, English horn. Pre-concert chamber music begins at 6:40 pm. (See concert details in the calendar listings below, along with information on the November 3 Voices of Autumn concert featuring Hochstein Youth Singers and Hochstein Singers.)

The 75-member HYSO is a full orchestra for advanced strings, brass, woodwinds, and percussion students in grades 7–12 from the greater Rochester region. Directed by Casey Springstead, the HYSO presents three concerts per year along with periodic international tours including the spring 2016 tour to Austria and Germany.

About Hochstein: The Hochstein School of Music & Dance celebrates 96 years of nurturing the creative spirit by providing excellent music and dance instruction to anyone who is interested—regardless of age, level of skill, background, or ability to pay. Established in 1920 as The David Hochstein Memorial Music School, today Hochstein serves approximately 4,000 students annually from a 12-county region surrounding Rochester, N.Y., with offerings in music, dance, and Expressive Arts (music, art, and dance therapy). In addition, the Hochstein School continues its commitment to the Rochester community by offering a variety of free and low-cost concerts and performances in the Hochstein Performance Hall throughout the year.
