Hochstein Announces Spring 2017 Live from Hochstein Free Lunchtime Concerts and Live Radio Broadcasts

Wednesdays, 12:10–12:50 pm, March 22–May 10, 2017

ROCHESTER, N.Y.— The Hochstein School of Music & Dance’s free lunchtime “brown bag” Live from Hochstein concert series resumes on Wednesday, March 22 from 12:10–12:50 pm in the Hochstein Performance Hall with a concert featuring brass music that tells a story, and continues through Wednesday, May 10. The series gives downtown business people, teachers, families, students, and friends an opportunity to enjoy classical music by outstanding musicians, including soloists, duets, and small ensembles. Hosted by WXXI Classical 91.5’s Mona Seghatoleslami and broadcast live on WXXI Classical 91.5/ 90.3 FM, Live from Hochstein is the longest-running live broadcast concert series in Western New York.

See below for calendar listings of the full concert series. Photos of the musicians can be downloaded at <https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/0B4gOTOGVRYOhazAzbGVXYndSdWs?usp=sharing>.

Sidney and Barbara Sobel have provided continuous underwriting of the Live from Hochstein Broadcast & Concert Series since 1993. Live from Hochstein is also made possible by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature.

About Hochstein: The Hochstein School of Music & Dance celebrates 96 years of nurturing the creative spirit by providing excellent music and dance instruction to anyone who is interested—regardless of age, level of skill, background, or ability to pay. Established in 1920 as The David Hochstein Memorial Music School, today Hochstein serves approximately 4,000 students annually from a 12-county region surrounding Rochester, N.Y., with offerings in music, dance, and Expressive Arts (music, art, and dance therapy). In addition, the Hochstein School continues its commitment to the Rochester community by offering a variety of free and low-cost concerts and performances in the Hochstein Performance Hall throughout the year. For more information, visit www.hochstein.org.
