Hochstein's Annual Musical Mystery Tour Features Scavenger Hunt, Instrument Petting Zoo, Music & Dance Activities, Drum Circle, and More
Family-friendly winter open house on Sunday, January 21, 2018, 2:00–4:00 pm

ROCHESTER, N.Y.—Hochstein's annual Musical Mystery Tour on Sunday, January 21, 2018, from 2:00–4:00 pm, sends children on a scavenger hunt for dance and music clues scattered throughout the historic Hochstein building, while the exceptional Hochstein faculty guide young gumshoes through music, dance, and craft activities. Families can explore the school's offerings, learn more about the school, and even register for individual lessons and winter class sessions.

This fun-filled afternoon includes: an instrument petting zoo; interactive sessions of music FUNdamentals, African dance, ballet, and creative movement; crafts and Music and Art Therapy activities; performances by Hochstein ensembles; and a huge drum circle!

Tickets are $3 per child, $5 per adult, and a maximum of $10 per family. Children 2 and under are admitted free of charge.

About Hochstein: The Hochstein School of Music & Dance celebrates 97 years of nurturing the creative spirit by providing excellent music and dance instruction to anyone who is interested—regardless of age, level of skill, background, or ability to pay. Established in 1920 as The David Hochstein Memorial Music School, today Hochstein serves approximately 4,000 students annually from a 12-county region surrounding Rochester, N.Y., with offerings in music, dance, and Expressive Arts (music, art, and dance therapy). In addition, the Hochstein School continues its commitment to the Rochester community by offering a variety of free and low cost concerts and performances in the Hochstein Performance Hall throughout the year.
