Hochstein Summer Camps, Classes, and Lessons Start July 10

Offering a full range of music and dance classes for learners of all ages and abilities

ROCHESTER, N.Y.— At The Hochstein School, summer is a time to continue learning – keeping your music and dance skills fresh, or maybe trying out a new instrument or learning some new dance moves. Hochstein’s summer session gets under way Monday, July 10. Children ages 5 to 10 can take a fun-filled journey through music, art, and movement during three sessions of Arts in Action summer camps, each week with a different theme. There are also numerous weeklong camps on a specific topic, music and dance group classes, and individual lessons for all ages.

Hochstein’s summer offerings include:

- Two brand new camps for wind players: Elementary Wind Band Camp (July 31-Aug. 4) and Woodwind & Brass Chamber Camp (Aug. 14-18);
- Around the World of Dance (July 31-Aug. 4), a new summer dance camp for ages 7-18;
- Two new adult dance classes: Adult Movers and Latin Social Dance;
- Music FUNdamentals, Suzuki Strings (including Summer Suzuki Explorations), and Suzuki Harp classes for young children;
- Arts in Action camps for children ages 5-10 (Week 1: A Prehistoric Performance; Week 2: Jazzed About Jazz; Week 3: Music in the Kitchen);
- A variety of topic-specific music camps and workshops, including Comics & Music, Explorations: Jazz & Improvisation Workshop, Flute Camp, and String & Piano Chamber Music Connections;
- Individual instrument and voice lessons as well as music theory classes;
- Ballet classes for age 3 and up, as well as dance classes in tap, hip hop, Latin dance, modern dance, Spanish Flamenco, and African dance and drumming;
- Jazz ensembles and group classes on ukulele, guitar, and vocal technique;

- Music, art, and dance therapy for individuals and groups through the Expressive Arts program.

The full schedule of summer music and dance camps and classes – which run through Friday, August 18 – is posted on the Hochstein website at www.hochstein.org/Summer.

Interested students can register through the Hochstein website, by mailing in a registration form, or by appointment – call 585-454-4596. Tuition assistance is available for all programs of study to those who qualify, based on household income. For more information, call 585-454-4596.

Hochstein programs are made possible by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Kathy Hochul and the New York State Legislature.

About Hochstein: The Hochstein School is a vibrant organization in Rochester, NY, offering high-quality instruction in music, dance, and Expressive Arts (music, art, and dance therapy). Established in 1920 to commemorate the artistry, life, and service of David Hochstein – a prodigious violinist who died serving in World War I – the School welcomes students of all ages, abilities, proficiency levels, ethnicities, and socio-economic backgrounds in an inclusive and accessible environment that provides artistic opportunities for all. More than 100 years after its founding, Hochstein annually serves more than 3,000 students from a 12-county region surrounding Rochester. The School is active throughout the community and provides tuition assistance to more than 50% of its students. The acclaimed Hochstein Performance Hall, located within the school's historic downtown building, hosts concerts and events throughout the year. For more information, visit www.hochstein.org.
